NICE DAY FOR PARENTS' WEEKEND — Last Saturday's mild, sunny weather provided a beautiful backdrop for the annual parents' weekend at Gould Academy. Over 300 parents, grandparents and other family members — representing 85% of Gould's 213 students — were in town for the weekend, coming from places as far away as California, Oregon, Georgia, Texas, Canada and Hong Kong. On Friday, parents had the opportunity to talk with faculty members and student advisors about the progress of their children. In addition, the Art Department held an exhibit of the works of Japanese potter Hajime Kozuro. Headmaster Bill Clough met with the parents on Saturday and outlined the 1985 "Four Points" program in which each student will be involved in a special project, such as Outward Bound, peaceful uses of nuclear energy, or service to Bethel. There were athletic events on Saturday as well, such as the soccer game above, which was a 2-2 tie between Gould and Hebron Academy. There was also a chicken barbecue luncheon and a drama presentation that night. On Sunday, the visiting family members had brunch in the dining room and then had the opportunity of canoeing on the Androscoggin or hiking in Grafton Notch.

Directors' Meeting

NOTES FROM THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
The Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday at the Bethel Inn. The meeting was called to order after watching a feature on the Bethel/Bayant Pond/West Paris area on ABC's Good Morning America program. The chamber is now over the 100 mark for current memberships!

The meeting concentrated on production of the chamber booklet, scheduled for printing in January 1985. Twenty thousand copies will be printed.

Ski Show chairman Bill Riley reported that 11 businesses were participating. Those interested should bring a slide, two brochures and business cards to the Bethel Inn by Saturday.

The monthly evening meeting of the chamber will be held Nov. 13. The main topic to be discussed will be the development of a railroad museum in Bethel.

Next Tuesday's meeting will be held at the Fabric Emporium at 7:30 a.m.

Meeting in the library at Telstar Regional High School on Monday evening of this week, the S.A.D. 44 Board of Directors approved the completion of the initial project application for an addition to the Crescent Park School. The completed application will be presented to the directors for their action at the regular meeting of Dec. 10. If the application receives state-level approval and public hearings within the district indicate a positive citizen reaction, the earliest realistic date for action by the State Board of Education would be early to mid-1986. The project's concept, if carried to fruition, would result in an addition to Crescent Park School that would enable the return of Bethel area sixth graders to an elementary environment instead of a middle school environment, and permit the closing of Ethel Bisbee School.

The board upheld the 10-day suspensions of a Telstar Middle School

The residents of Sudbury Village will not be greeting Halloween visitors this year. They will be making a contribution to UNICEF.

Happy Halloween

STAINED GLASS ARTIST TO VISIT GOULD

With the help of a grant from the Maine State Commission on the Arts and Humanities, Gould Academy is sponsoring a workshop by Jan Sirois Royall, on Oct. 29 and 30. Mrs. Royall will present slides of her work in stained glass and then conduct a day-long session in making stained glass for selected Gould art students.

The art department at Gould invites artists in many fields to conduct workshops for its students. Jan Sirois Royall is the first of this year's visitors.

Reportedly the youngsters were on the school bus and had in their possession a coffee brandy bottle that still contained traces of the substance. ## Cablevision officials seeking antenna site

Officials of Bethel Cablevision Co., Inc., the company awarded the contract to supply Bethel with cable TV by the end of next year, were in town this week looking at possible antenna sites for the two dish antennas they will erect to bring in the signal for the cable TV system.

Dennis Nolin, of White Mountain Cable Construction Co., a partner in the operation—said he has no commitment yet for purchase or lease of a suitable property. The size parcel he requires is only 100-feet by 100-feet, he said. The parcel would preferably be near electric power.

The company has been moving ahead with preparations for stringing cable once the antenna site, known as the "head-end," is established. Mr. Nolin said the strand mapping is completed, with maps of the power and phone poles, and houses in the area already done. The company has applied for permission from the power and phone utilities to string cable from the poles, and Mr. Nolin said he expects the licenses within two months.

85 YEARS YOUNG — Bill Young was all smiles last Friday evening as he cut into his birthday cake. His sons and daughters threw the party for him, and 84 friends and relatives showed up at the Sudbury Village apartment of Mr. Young to partake in the celebration. Including the celebrant, that made 85 people for the 85th birthday. In addition to food, beverages and birthday cake, the assemblage enjoyed the music of Charlotte Cole. Koburn's Flower Shop provided the boutonniere. Mr. Young is of Scottish descent and came to Maine from Canada. He has worked locally in the mills and in food service, where his specialty is pies and doughnuts. He has two sons, Peter, of West Bethel, and Lawrence of Bethel; and three daughters, Honey Bailey, and Janice Cross, both of Bethel, and Edna Cole, of Locke Mills.

APPLE HILL CHAMBER

PLAYERS TO PERFORM

AT GOULD NOV. 1

The Apple Hill Chamber Players will appear in concert at Gould Academy, in the William Bingham Auditorium on Thursday, Nov. 1, at 7:30 p.m. and the public is invited at no charge.

The Apple Hill Chamber Players have been one of New England's most critically appreciated ensembles since they were formed as artists-in-residence at the Center for Chamber Music in 1971. The group can be heard on Opus One and Sine Quo Non records.

The group acts as faculty for the summer sessions at Apple Hill, in addition to their busy national concert schedule. The members of the ensemble are Anthony Principiotti and Sue Rabut, violins; Betty Hauch, viola; Richard Hartshorne, double bass; Robert Menfeld, piano, and Eric Stumacher, piano. The guest artist at this performance will be cellist Bonnie Thron. The program on Nov. 1 at Gould will include works by Beethoven, Brahms, and Harbison. For information call 824-2101.

bethel town office

The Board of Selectmen will meet in a workshop session Monday, Oct. 29, in the town office meeting room. The workshop format permits the board to discuss problems in open session rather than acting on formal motions.

The meeting will start at 7 p.m. with a presentation by Bob Ballew of Hunter-Ballew Associates, Falmouth, of proposed engineering services to be rendered to the town in expanding Col. Dyke Field in accordance with the Airport Master Plan (1983). In the March 1983 town meeting, voters approved an article that would expand airport facilities, including the building of a 3,150-foot paved runway, at no expense to the taxpayers. Current, an environmental assessment and an archeological dig are being conducted at the airport which comprise the last steps required before initial construction efforts may begin. The board has invited members of the Airport Development Committee to attend.

At 7:30 p.m. the board will discuss the question of whether to continue looking for a used grader or consider advocating the use of lease/purchase options to purchase a new grader to replace the present 1958 model Caterpillar. The used grader market has turned into one controlled by the seller;

Phone service change delayed until next month

Inauguration of the new phone system for Bethel and surrounding communities has been delayed, according to William E. Benner, Contel's superintendent of telephone services for western Maine. The utility company had planned to put the new system into operation by the end of October, but Mr. Benner said it now looks as if the start-up will be delayed until the early part of November.

The new system, costing $2.1 million, will re-direct phone conversations from the current overhead cables into underground fibre-optic wires and will replace the old mechanical switching devices with computerized switching for local and long-distance calls. The new system will require that callers use all seven digits of any number dialed. The new system will also make available more single-party lines, plus a number of sophisticated extra-cost devices, such as call-waiting and call-forwarding.

"We're going to be sending out cards (next week) to all our customers describing the new system and how it will operate," Mr. Benner said.

CELEBRATES 90th BIRTHDAY

— On Oct. 21, Mrs. Eva Keniston celebrated her 90th birthday at the home of her grandson, David Keniston, whose birthday also is Oct. 21. Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keniston, Bethel; Peter and Stacey Keniston, Farmington; Dr. Lennie and Becky Shaw, Jean and Jon; David, Jodi, Heather and Heath Keniston; Mrs. Elsie Davis and Mrs. Elaine Packard, Mrs. Keniston, a former resident of Locke Mills, West Paris, and Sudbury Village in Bethel, now resides at Ledgeview Memorial Home, West Paris.

machines in good condition are being kept in service rather than being offered for sale. This year, the town has received only two offers to look at used graders, both were out-of-state (new Jersey and Tennessee). Bethel's grader plays a key role in snowplowing operations. — Mrs. Arline Bernier, Corres. —

The Bergerons entertained Goldie Bergeron and the Dums from Temple during the week end.

Laurie had the misfortune to step on two long nails one of which had been driven in at an angle. She went to Colebrook hospital where x-rays showed the bone was penetrated.

The weather remains unseasonably warm. We are receiving some rain after a long dry spell.

Elsie Douglass had a wood splitter and crew to work up her wood supply Sunday.

The E.R.A. is on the ballot. I doubt this would give women any more equality than we have now.

From my studies, I suspect it would diminish the superiority and privileges that we enjoy. Let's go with what we have, gals, and improve it, not throw it away for a mess of pottage.

Locke Mills

— Mrs. John Mills, Corres. —

The Oxford Union Association of the UCC will meet in Mexico at the Congregational Church Sunday, Oct. 28. There will be a car pool leaving the Locke Mills Church at 2:30 p.m. Lay people will be leading the worship and the meeting and there'll be a pot luck supper.

The Northern Lights singers will be presenting a concert at the Locke Mills Church Oct. 27 at 7 p.m. A free will offering will be received.

Sunday, Oct. 28, the Union Church will participate in a pulpit exchange. Rev. Anita White will lead the worship and Rev. Caldwell will go to her church in Poland. Rev. White may be remembered as having spoken here two years ago.

For those who have received the library survey sheets, it will be appreciated if they would make an effort to return them, so as to present as accurate a picture as possible about the desires of the townspeople. Volunteers are still needed to distribute surveys on some of the streets in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mills attended a fellowship dinner at the Nazarene Church Sunday and enjoyed a slide show of Pastor and Mrs. Johnson's trip to the Alpine countries of Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Leino, Harrison, and Burrie Rice, Bethel, were recent callers of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cross.

Word has been received that John Hicks Sr. has been very ill and hospitalized. He and Mrs. Hicks are now at the home of their granddaughter and would enjoy hearing from friends. Their address is c/o Bruce White, Box 546, Mechanic Falls, Maine 04256.

The Ladies Circle met Wednesday with 16 members present. Rev. Caldwell read a letter from missionary Rita Salls and it was voted to send a donation to her to aid in her work. The final tally for the Senior Citizen dinner was $218. The ladies set the date of the fall sale as Friday, Nov. 16, from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Luncheon will be served beginning at 11. The menu will consist of chop suey, baked beans, salads, rolls, brown bread, sandwiches, pie and beverages. The usual food and fanciwork tables will be featured at the sale. Ruth Cox is working on the tablecloths to get them uniform in size. A birthday calendar was passed out to members. Those celebrating birthdays were Ruth Cox, Joanne Cole and Georgia Packard. Refreshments were served by Edna Cole and Mary Mills. Bertha Flanders will make the November birthday cake. A silent auction netted about $20 for the sunshine fund. The next meeting is Nov. 28 the last Wednesday of the month, due to the fall sale.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mills were in Gorham, N.H., Monday evening and attended a meeting of Women's Aglow Fellowship.

Seven members of the Senior Youth Group went to Andover Sunday to attend the film, "The Hiding Place."

Brent Swan spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Swan, while enroute from Lafayette, La., to his job assignment in Cabinda, Angola. He will be there for several weeks as a mechanic for Petroleum Helicopters, Inc., doing maintenance on aircraft leased to Gulf Oil Corporation. He left Monday from Portland, Maine and following a short layover in Brussels, Belgium, was scheduled to arrive in Africa on Wednesday.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Collista Morgan, Corres. —

The great sun rises over the hill, giving the morn a fond caress; The cattle feeding, soft and still Create an air of peacefulness.

— Della D. Mockridge

And it doesn't seem possible that October is on its way out. It has been a glorious month in beauty and weather.

The morning haze of this month has been whiter than that of summer. It was in the morning air, exhaled from the earth and from the waters. The air was cool, clear, and quiet; not yet charged with the cruelty of those months to come. October's days were days of immeasurable distances. One thought of the horizon, as pushed back, I saw it from so many places this week. It has been a tingling magical time. There is always charm on the waters, the hills, the fields, as I look from my own windows and yard. Then again from the farm and up the hills, through the pasture and from the woodlands.

Two flocks of wild geese have honked their way overhead warning us that it's time to bid October a fond farewell.

'Wild geese, wild geese, where do you go?

Is yours always an endless quest Through boundless solitude can high?

Is yours the heart that knows no rest?"

— William A. Wofford

I took advantage of the warmth and beauty this week to remove my screens, wash my windows, and put on my double windows. It is no pleasant job in the cold winds of November. Then it is a time to hurry and shiver. I like to think of Harriet Elmslad's poem at this time called "Storm-Window Time."

"There is a snug contentedness about storm window time When screens come off and storms go on with that first glittering shine.

(The house feels warm—secure against the winds so soon to blow.

And followed in so short a time by swirling drifts of snow. Then peacefulness of evening fires, a book we've longed to read.

A 'family' around us, is all the wealth we need. Activity of summertime has ceased and peace sublime Descends upon our little home at storm-window time."

JACKSON-SILVER POST & UNIT HOLD 'BOY/GIRL STATE NIGHT' LAST THURSDAY EVENING

Jackson-Silver Post & Unit #68, American Legion and Auxiliary, held its annual Boy and Girl State program Thursday, Oct. 18, beginning with a 6:30 p.m. pot luck supper in their newly decorated room.

President Kathy Bartlett opened the program with a pledge of allegiance to the American flag, and a prayer by Comrade Alanson Cummings.

Secretary Grace Smith was presented a "thank you" cake and a check in appreciation of the many years she has faithfully served the refreshments at the Friday night game parties.

Sylvia Dunham, Cathryn Lovejoy and Dorothy West sang the "State of Maine," followed by everyone joining in. Mary Lyon was at the piano.

Music chairman Mary Lyon, and Dorothy West did a piano duet, "Over the Waves," that all enjoyed.

The special guests at the head table were introduced by the President, and Commander Earl Merrill, as follows: National Executive Committee woman Jeri Brooks, Bethel; Girl State Director Shirley Williams, Jay; Ruth Jucious, Assistant Girl State Director, Turner; Vita DeFilipp, Boy State Coordinator, Rumford; Arthur Hutchinson, Second District Commander, Weld; Lee Ann Coolidge, Girl State, and Alan Verrill, Boy State delegate. Miss Otero-Otero was absent.

The young folks gave fine reports of their week's stay at Orono and Husson College and thanked the Post and Unit for sponsoring them. Miss Coolidge would like to return as a counselor next year.

Other guests were Mike Cocco, head of the Rumford Post #24, Joseph Vatalaro, known for his work at the Maine Blind Camp, Comrade and Mrs. Tyler of Weld, Mr. and Mrs. Boh Coolidge, Miss Bethany Coolidge and her friend, Mr. Coolidge, and Legionnaire Carolyn Brooks of Bethel.

Public relations chairman Fannie Cummings introduced the new publisher of the Bethel Citizen, Bernard Wideman to those at the head table, as he prepared to take over the photography work of Don Brown, who has been so faithful in coming to Locke Mills to cover their most important functions.

The decorations were in keeping with Halloween and the apples at the head table were donated by Juanita Korhonen.

Service officer Warren Smith took Comrade Albert Foster to Togus one day last week. He would appreciate hearing from the members. Life member Arthur Wymant continues to be in and out of Togus for treatment.

West Bethel

John Francisco of Jacksonville, Fla., has been visiting his friends and relatives, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray West of Rumford spent Wednesday at Cleveland Lovejoy's, working on the new barn roof with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lovejoy.

Cathryn Lovejoy drove her parents to their doctor in Harrison, Thursday afternoon. Alanson had treatment on his bad shoulder and Fannie had a cyst removed from under her left eye.

Saturday afternoon the West Bethel Union Church was well filled for the funeral services for Gordon Mason, a long time resident of West Bethel. Mrs. Ruth Everett will stay with Ann Mason for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Jackson and three children of Harrison were dooryard visitors Saturday afternoon at Cleve Lovejoy's. They came to see their cousin, Alfred Lovejoy from Michigan.

Sunday after church the family of C.R. Lovejoy joined together for dinner and to work on the new roof. Monday, Richard Walker was a welcome helper.

Miss Lillian Lovejoy was among the Sunday guests at her brother's and attended church. Stella and Cathryn Lovejoy took her back to Ledgewood Home and visited Myrtle Downing in West Paris.

In an item last week there was an error which should be corrected. It should have stated that Mr. and Mrs. David Head had returned from a week's trip to Switzerland.

Richard Lewis has been in Syracuse, N. Y., for a two-weeks course relating to his work at the U.S. Forest Service.

Peter Stowell and friend from Augusta were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stowell on Sunday.

Spending this week with Ann Mason are Ruth Gordon of Norway and several of Ann's grandsons.

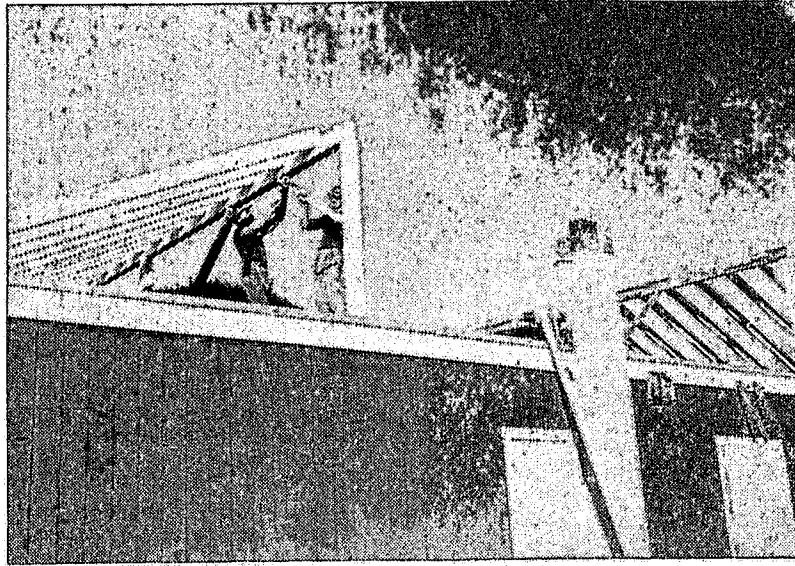

Sylvia Akers of Natick, Mass., visited Olive Head a few days last week.

Albert Dean of the Canadian Sunday School Mission will be speaker at the Pleasant Valley Bible Church on Sunday, Oct. 28. There will be a fellowship dinner after the service.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the many neighbors and friends and the family of my husband, Gordon Mason; I especially wish to extend thanks to Rev. Rust, Rev. Griffith and the bearers for Gordon's service, and special appreciation to Rev. Nancy Hartley for making the celebration of Gordon's life so special to me.

R. Ann Mason

North Paris

— Evaline B. Vatcher, Corres. —

The last rock maple on the Vatcher Plantation has finally decided to shed its pretty leaves. We hoped the tree would stay pretty the whole month.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Abbott returned Tuesday evening from Massachusetts. Faye spent the night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newton at Mechanic Falls and came to her home Wednesday night. We hope she will improve in health and not have to have more surgery. She has medication.

Many wells in the area are dry.

Joe and Eveline Vatcher saw a tame baby deer (not a spotted fawn) and it had a bright red ribbon and bow around its neck. The lady of the house was taking clothes from the line and the deer stayed close to her heels. Also a very large goose was present.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Steve Maddix. Steve lived at the former Trask farm for many years before moving to West Paris.

The Community Club ham supper was a success and we had a supper fit for the Gods. We thank everyone for their patronage and all the cooks for furnishing all the goodies for the supper all summer.

David Lyons had a wood splitting "bee" on Saturday, Oct. 20, when several young men who work with David at Penley Corp., came and took care of his wood pile and Susan's cousin from Oxford also came to help. They took care of a lot of wood and David and Susan were happy. That's what friends are for, to help one another.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neale Jr., Buxton, spent Monday afternoon with Joe and Eveline Vatcher. Other callers were Mr. and Mrs. John Emery, Rhoda Vatcher, and Clyde Knights.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Spencer

A NEW ROOF FOR NEWRY'S TOWN OFFICE — Jim Sysko and brother Dave are making rapid headway putting a new roof on the former Raymond C. Foster School, on the Bear River Road. The school was turned over to the town last month and will be used by the town as a town office, while a portion will continue to be leased to N.O.V.A.

West Greenwood

— Carolyn M. Colby, Corres. —

I omitted an item last week. Harry and Bernice Moore of Goshen, Conn., have been visiting Russ and Judy Andrews and family, Shelburne, N. H., and Marc and Leslie Moore and family.

Irene Wilson's recent visitors have been: Muriel Butters, Bethel; Danny Kennedy, Bingham; and Mike Wilson, Sunday River.

Connie Roberge, Locke Mills, visited us Sunday afternoon.

Brian and I were shopping at Oxford Saturday.

Knitting or sewing Christmas presents is what's keeping the neighbors home the last few weeks.

have bought the Reidys' trailer on the Trask road and will have it winterized before the move here.

Callers at Lawrences: Marge Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Abbott.

The telephones on the new road are on underground cable. The men removed the overhead wires on Saturday.

Don't forget the clocks on the weekend.

Nathan Miley had a fight with the power saw and damaged a couple of fingers.

— Mrs. Marjorie Jodrey, Cor. —

Starting this week all news items will have to be brought to me before Monday at noon in order to be in this week's paper. This is a new deadline.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Learned were in Laconia, N.H., Saturday. Mrs. Francis Humphrey and children, Melissa and Joshua, returned home on Friday after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jodrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Abbott have returned home after spending two weeks visiting in Riverside, Calif. Mrs. Floyd Emerson and Mrs. Walter Jodrey returned Tuesday night after visiting in Escondido and San Diego, Calif.

On Oct. 14, Mrs. Kaye Morin was guest of honor at a birthday party held at her grandmother Akers' log cabin in North Andover. Those attending besides the honored guest and her husband, David Morin, were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Swan, her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cummings, John Percival, Jenny and Angela, Dana and Del Eastman and her grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Akers.

Mrs. Thelma Clark is visiting her daughter Susan, in Bedford, Mass.

Greeters at the First Congregational Church in Andover on Sunday, Oct. 21 were Mrs. Ann Bishop and sons Chad and David. The young people of the church conducted the service. Chad and David Bishop received baptism.

Those on the sick or injured list are Otis Morton, Anne Fox, Dot Elliott and Alma Hewey. Greeters for next Sunday will be Dolly Jones and Evelyn Bell, Sunday afternoon the movie, "The Hiding Place" was shown at 6 o'clock.

A LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF DISTRICT 49:

During the nine months since I announced my candidacy for the State House of Representatives I have travelled from one end of this district to the other and back again, put over 4,000 miles on my car, been in every town, plantation and township, attended town meetings, meetings of other groups and organizations, and talked with hundreds of people about their views regarding the issues affecting them.

Over and over I keep hearing the same message. "Augusta and the present State government doesn't care about us." "They only care about the 'big' cities and the coastal area." "The legislature passes laws that not only don't help us, but they hurt us."

I think it's time that those in Augusta did hear from the people of District 49 and that's exactly what I plan to provide. The creation of new jobs in this area is the key and the attitude in Augusta that prevents this from happening must be changed.

Western Maine's bread and butter industries are wood and tourism. The wood industry suffers from one of the most liberal and expensive worker's compensation systems in the country. When a logger has to pay out 33 percent of his gross wages just to cover worker's compensation it's too much. This stifles expansion of existing business and the attraction of new business from outside the state.

Maine spends almost nothing to attract visitors to the State. Tourism is an industry that brings $655 million into the economy each year, generates over $70 million in state tax revenues, and employs over 25,000 people. With our beautiful lakes, streams and mountains and our recreational opportunities we can't let this situation stay as is. Again jobs are the issue!

I promise to work hard to change things which have existed for too many years. It will be a full-time commitment, and that is what I pledge to give to you, the people of District 49.

On November 6th make your vote count and go to the polls and help effect a long needed change.

Thank you. I look forward to meeting you as I continue to travel the District.

Sincerely,

AL BARTH

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR...

16 October 1984

To the Editor:

The Selectmen of the Town of Upton have been notified by the Executive Committee of the Maine Municipal Association that the Town of Upton has been awarded the highest honor of Supreme Merit in the 1984 MMA Municipal Report Competition in its population category.

This is the second consecutive year that the Town of Upton has won this award and the third consecutive year the town has won an award for its Town Report.

Sincerely,
Richard J. LeComte, Chairman
Board of Selectmen

To the Editor:

Rep. Jeff Mills has done a remarkable job for our area since his election in 1983. His interest in issues of importance to this area, and his concern for the problems of individual constituents combined with his attention to his job as State Representative add up to a legislator who gets results. Those of us who support Jeff in his bid for re-election are glad to help Jeff with the many tasks required in a campaign because we want him to continue the job he has started for all of us in District 49. We hope you will join us in voting for Jeff Mills on Election Day, Nov. 6.

Sincerely,
Mills for State Rep.
Committee
Cathy Newell,
Campaign Manager

To the Editor:

The issue of transportation, specifically the condition of our roads and highways, is important to all of us in western Maine—and has received a good bit of attention in The Citizen during the past few weeks.

I have asked for assignment to the Transportation Committee if I am re-elected to the Legislature from District 49. This committee assignment will allow me to work effectively for our fair share of highway improvement funds. The condition of our major highways is of great importance for our economic future; but it is the condition of our secondary roads which impacts, and irritates, us daily. I will work with town officials, as I did last spring with the town of Upton, to make sure that all possible state aid has been obtained.

I ask for your support in continuing the job I started when I was elected last fall and for your vote on Tuesday, Nov. 6.

Sincerely,
Jeff Mills
State Representative

To the Editor:

Over 10 months have passed since friends and family urged me to run for the Maine State House of Representatives, District 49. Since that time when I announced my candidacy I've travelled all over Western Maine, met countless numbers of people, listened at town meetings, and attended meetings of many different organizations. There have been forums, debates, candidates' nights, countless pot luck suppers, and many doors opened as I sought to meet all the people of District 49.

Has it been worth all the time, effort, and expense? Yes, an unqualified and definite yes. Everywhere I've travelled response to me and my message has been enthusiastic, friendly and very gratifying. To the people of District 49 I thank you.

The message I hear over and over is one of frustration with State government and the feeling that those in Augusta don't really know about or care about rural Maine. I'd like to change that attitude.

We here in District 49 depend on two industries for the majority of our job opportunities. Our basic economy depends on wood and tourism, neither of which has been helped or encouraged by Augusta, the Governor or the Legislature. Maine's business climate has now

To the Editor:

The up-coming vote for the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA), a referendum question in this coming presidential election should give everyone grave concern. Although not to say it was intentional, the very brief simple wording of this amendment as it is printed on the ballot can be misleading.

Naturally, every fair-minded person should be for equal rights for everyone regardless of their sex. So the immediate response would be to, by all means, vote yes. The hidden danger, however, lies in future litigation by the courts. The present Attorney General of this State has been quoted as saying, in reference to this amendment, "It cannot be predicted what interpretation will be adopted by the courts." So in other words, the interpretation of this amendment will be entirely in the hands of the courts and unelected judges, of both liberal and conservative persuasion. One can but wonder what will be done with such a simply stated amendment in the future as we read of the far-fetched interpretations of the First amendment of our national constitution.

Of great concern to me is the fact that the words "rights" and "sex" are not defined. What "rights" are to be equal? Does the word "sex" mean the sex you are or the sex preference you have, which of course could include those who claim to be homosexual. I am sure some will feel when they mark their ballots they will of course be voting for equal rights for women. First, however, we note the word "women" is not in the wording of this amendment. Secondly, these rights are already provided for under already existing laws, such as the Equal Protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, Title VIII Civil Rights Act, the Equal Rights Opportunity Act of 1972 and other existing legislation.

So before one votes this very broad and far-reaching legislation into law they should read all they can about its far reaching effects. One of the hazards of our democratic system is that people vote before they are fully and completely informed. We ought to vote intelligently on an issue or not vote at all. For what seems like a good thing might well turn out to be a catastrophe. Remember, this amendment, if passed, could well, by some, be interpreted to include sexual preference, which then could give certain rights to homosexuals which are fast becoming a social and moral scourge to our nation.

Then, too, if passed in its present form, this amendment could conceivably be interpreted to grant women the right to an abortion by use of public funds, as has already happened in other states where such an amendment has been passed. In this case, then, those of us who feel that taking the life of an unborn child is murder would actually be deprived of our rights, inasmuch as we would have to pay taxes to fund something we feel is tragically wrong, in fact a crime of our society.

Many other hidden dangers could be cited, but these two in and of themselves could be devastating to our way of life in America.

So again I would appeal to those who vote, be sure you know what you are voting for. Don't let the simple language fool you. Think of the future litigation and its results, as it will be interpreted by various courts and judges. It might be well to vote negatively and wait for a more clearly defined choice to be offered in the future.

R. M. Lord

declined to 47th out of 50 and Lewiston's bond rating has been cut because of the state's overall economic climate. The high cost of workers compensation and the fact that the state spends little or nothing to attract visitors only compounds this already sad situation. The current leadership in Augusta has had a number of years to change this situation but seems not to care. I feel it's time for a change. Jobs are the bottom line and that is what I'll fight for. You can help by electing me as your Representative on Nov. 6.

Thank you and please go to the polls and cast your ballot.

Sincerely,
Al Banta
Candidate for State Representative, District 49

UMW TO MEET NOV. 1

The United Methodist Women will hold their Nov. 1 meeting in the church annex at 1:30 p.m. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Pauline Wieden and Betty Blake. Bea Brown will tell about her trip to Italy.

GERRY AND BONNIE'S CUSTOM KNITTING, on Vernon Street, opened for business last week. Mother and daughter, Gerry Machia and Bonnie Clough, offer a wide assortment of knit goods at moderate prices. The two knitters have various items on display and will also do custom work on orders of the customer's own choosing.

GILLIES REALTY ANNOUNCES NEW SALES ASSOCIATE. Gillies Realty, Inc., announces that Wendy McGroarty has begun work with the agency as a sales associate. Ms. McGroarty holds a master's degree in counseling, and has worked as a guidance counselor on Long Island, New York. She has owned a home in Norway since 1976, and recently has moved to Bethel. "Bethel is a community I always have admired. Moving here and developing a career in real estate are happy events for me," Ms. McGroarty said. Mary Gillies, owner of Gillies Realty, states, "I am impressed by Wendy's ability and energy, and look forward to the expanded real estate services our association will allow." Gillies Realty is located at Three Broad Street, at the corner of Main and Broad Streets.

FIRST ACROSS THE FINISH LINE in Gould's cross-country meet last Saturday was Bethel's Matt Isham, who finished the 3.44-mile course in 19 minutes and 28 seconds. Isham, who attends college in Beloit, Wisc., was not a formal participant in the meet, which was between Gould and North Yarmouth Academy. Gould's Jerry Croft was first among the regular contestants, finishing in 21:58. But Gould lost the meet by five points.

MEETING OF 14 CHAMBER MEMBERS DISCUSSES BOSTON SKI SHOW PARTICIPATION

The Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce arranged a meeting with 14 of its members last Thursday afternoon at Sunday River's Cascade Condominium Hotel to discuss the feasibility of participating in the Boston Ski Show, Nov. 9-12.

It was apparent almost immediately that those present favored exhibiting at this top-flight show and detailed planning quickly began. A roster of those accepting booth coverage was compiled, a list of trade item donations was submitted, and a booth design committee was selected.

The eleven businesses represented included Fidelis Taylor and Jean Rossi, Rostay Motor Inn; Susan Sokolosky, Bethel Inn; Robin and brand new son, Brian Zinchuk, Chapman Inn; Bill and Ernestine Riley, Pine-Sider Lodge;

FROM THE WOODSTOCK HISTORICAL SOCIETY

"All I know is that life cannot be understood without much charity, cannot be lived without much charity." — Oscar Wilde

This statement seems to us to be very true. The easiest thing in the world is to judge others; one of the hardest is to have charity for others' faults. Yet the Bible itself says to judge not that ye be not judged. How frequently people disregard that injunction. Everyone's favorite dinner conversation seems to be others' supposed sins. Gossip seems rampant and does much undeserved damage. Surely we should not search for damning things to say about others. Few of us are exempt from every fault and foible. Think how well your own life would bear close scrutiny. Then exercise charity toward others. We are all human with human failings. History affirms this. So let's emphasize the positive and not give in to the vulgar enticements of gossip. The good we believe of others may in fact become reality.

Historical societies make use of gossip about the past, but hopefully we do not become embroiled in it in the present. Curator Larry Billings recently addressed Franklin Grange on Woodstock history, and he was pleasantly surprised when two Grange members gave him items for the society's collections. Olive Davis gave two notebooks of old clippings compiled by Annie Bryant Davis and Irene Mills gave a pitcher with Lake Christopher on it. Both donations are greatly appreciated and will add much to the museum.

STORYHOUR AT

ANDOVER PUBLIC LIBRARY

The first Story of the season was held in the downstairs room of the Andover Public Library, Tuesday, Oct. 16. The children listened to stories about Halloween, and the care of library books. For the crafts session the children made pictures of pressed leaves while they sang songs about leaves, and talked about the seasons. Attending were Jarrod Flinders, Megan Meisner, David Gallant, Sadie Gallant, Adam Williamson, Monica Smith, Paulette Thibodeau, Kari Thibodeau, Angela Smith, Angela Percival, Darcy Morse, and Philip Bailey.

Storyhour will continue every Tuesday from 3 to 4 p.m. Meanwhile parents are encouraged to bring their children in and experience the wonder of children's literature together. Library hours are Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday afternoons from 1:30 to 4:30.

Charlie Merrill is doing well following heart surgery at the Maine Medical Center.

In and About Bethel

Virginia Walker, Correspondent

Mrs. Charlotte Bennett joined a tour group enroute to Nashville, Tenn., Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Willard returned last week following an eight day tour of Switzerland.

CADET members please note change in day of meeting—Monday, Oct. 29, 2:30 p.m., at the town office.

Mary and Charlie Hurd are living in South Portland where she is employed at J.S. Penney's Styling Salon, Maine Mall. Charlie is a car salesman at Best Auto, Rt. 1, Saco. They would love to hear from their Bethel friends and neighbors. Their address is: 19 Robinson St., South Portland, Maine 04106.

Matt Isham of Bethel is a member of the Beloit (Wisc.) College cross-country team which captured the Wisconsin Small College Championship title on Oct. 13. He was Beloit's number one runner and placed ninth overall in the five-mile run with a time of 27:14. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Isham.

S.A.D. #44 BOARD MEETS

costume in a "crazy days" program.

The board turned down a request by a Hanover couple that their child be permitted to enroll at TRHS. It had been learned since the last board meeting on Oct. 8 that the Town of Hanover would not pay tuition to S.A.D. 44 for the student. Any action on appointment of winter coaches, three at TRHS and five at TMS, was tabled. An agenda item concerning the use of school kitchens by outside organizations was "passed over."

Sharon Higgins, of Locke Mills, was approved as adult education teacher for English and math in the high school diploma program. The formation of an executive committee of the board was turned down by the directors. The executive committee would have consisted of the board chairman, vice chairman, and the chairman of each standing committee of the board of directors. The executive committee would have functioned as a "sounding board" for issues and administrative proposals that had the potential of affecting several of the board's sub-committees.

The board approved the posting by the superintendent of the positions of special education consultant at Bethel Bissbee School and a special education aide to work one-half of each day at Bethel Bissbee School and one-half at Crescent Park School. Because of an inability to secure a part-time special education teacher at Bethel Bissbee School there are students at the school who are not receiving services required. It is believed by utilizing the services of a special education consultant and the availability of the aide, both the special education program at BBS and the composite room at CPS, which has seen the number of students requiring special services increase from four to seven since the start of the school year, will benefit.

The appointments of Maurice Hart as driver/maintenance worker and Harry H. Stevens as spare driver were approved. The posting of a vacancy in Mr. Hart's former position as custodian/bus driver was authorized. Tom Sweetser was approved as a substitute custodian/bus driver.

The directors accepted bids for the sale of two 20-passenger 1975 International school buses, as follows: #34, $876, Nancy Snow, Westborough, Mass., and #35, James Swan, of Sunday River, $606.

Board member Rick McVey of Newry was absent Monday evening. The S.A.D. 44 board is next scheduled to meet on Monday evening, Nov. 12, in the Telstar library at 7:30.

THIS WEEK AT THE

MOSES MASON HOUSE

All members and friends of the Bethel Historical Society are reminded that the monthly meeting will be held on Thursday, Nov. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House. Special feature of the meeting will be a presentation by Margaret Joy Tibbets, treasurer and chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Bethel Historical Society who will speak on the subject "Bethel's Memorial Women." Miss Tibbets will discuss the contributions of selected Bethel women of the 19th and 20th centuries from Mary True, who was a famous teacher of the deaf, whose pupils included Mabel Hubbard, the wife of Alexander Graham Bell, to Annie Heath, whose compassion for the homeless resulted in the feeding of countless "tramps" at the Bethel Lock-Up. The meeting is open to anyone interested in attending. Refreshments will follow the program.

The fifth of the society's fall film series will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 31, in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House beginning at 7:30 p.m. Funded with a grant from the Maine Humanities Council and the National Endowment for the Humanities, the series focuses upon the lives of one of America's most noted families, beginning with John Adams, second president of the United States. This film, entitled "John Adams: Vice President (1788-1796)" focuses on Adams' career as the nation's first vice president under George Washington. Here he experiences eight years of frustration. Caught between the ideologies of Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton, Adams is frequently at odds with his colleagues about the kind of government the country should have. The series is free and open to anyone interested. A short discussion will follow each film. This week's discussion leader will be Professor Allen Flint of the University of Maine at Farmington who will discuss selected aspects of the social and intellectual history of this era.

BETHEL TOWN OFFICE

The town's 26-year-old grader continues to decline.

A discussion of ambulance garaging after June 30, 1985, will follow. The S.A.D. 44 directors voted at a recent meeting not to renew the contract with the town to garage the ambulances at the bus garage. Selectman Pat Doon will present to the board a summary of her meeting with the Bethel Area Health Center trustees before the selectmen discuss the question of whether to advocate at a special town meeting this winter raising funds to build an ambulance garage on town property.

At 8 p.m. the Community Safety and Law Enforcement Committee will meet with the board to work on a policy for the police department. The committee had prepared a draft policy several months ago for review and this effort will attempt to resolve any questions that remain. The board has invited Bethel police officers and Community Safety and Law Enforcement Committee members to attend.

Absentee ballots are available for the general election of Tuesday, Nov. 6. Residents who will not be in town that day should stop by the town office to complete an absentee ballot. Arrangements can be made for voting absentee at home (for those who qualify) by calling the town office.

Newry

Mrs. Gilberte Seeley was guest of honor at a party Monday, Oct. 22 honoring her 77th birthday, which occurred on Oct. 24. The party was held at the home of Louise Tetley. Attending, besides the honored guest and hostess were Karlene Bachelder, Sylvia Wright, June Swan, Beatrice Lowell, Betsy Clark, Nancy Wright and Olive Anderson, all of Newry. The birthday cake was made by Karlene Bachelder and was decorated in Halloween colors. The honored guest received nice gifts and cards.

Safety Tip of the Week

As wood gathering continues in intensity, remember some simple wood cutting rules: 1. Use a sharpened saw at all times; 2. Clear away extra brush before removing a tree; 3. Always have an escape route in mind when felling a tree; 4. Watch out for obstructions like electrical wires or other trees which might hang up the tree; 5. Keep two hands on the saw when in operation; 6. Don't overdo, your body might not be in shape to handle the extra exertion.

— Pauline Smith, Corres. —

Mr. and Mrs. Littlefield and Robert's sister, Nellie McKeen, called on John and Ruth Fox.

John Fox drove Leroy Smith in to Portland Tuesday for a doctor's appointment.

Brad and Mary Crosby and Don and Phyllis Grogson had dinner at Charley and Arlene Merrill's, on Tuesday night.

Our sympathy is for the Bobbie Blood family as Susie Grant died at one hundred years old.

Linda Allen and Scott took Iva to the doctor in Bridgton and later saw Iva's mother, Marion Kendall, and aunt, Ona McAllister in the nursing home, also visited Errol and Gertrude Barker in Norway.

Leroy and Pauline Smith were in Gilead on business Wednesday. They came home by the way of the notch (Evans).

One hundred dollars was raised by the benefit supper for the family who were burned out and lost everything. Good neighbors, I'd say.

WEST BETHEL*Children's Center

The West Bethel Children's Center has 32 pre schoolers enrolled in their Head Start and Day Care programs. Children range in ages from 2½ to 6 years and all are involved in planned activities especially geared for the early childhood years. Staff promotes optimum development with a wide variety of experiences that encourage children to be curious about their environment and have many successful learning experiences, which in turn keeps children enthusiastic and interested in learning many new skills. The new group has settled into the routine very well and all participate in music, art, language, physical, emotional, social, and concept building, fine motor, and cultural activities each day. The center has the ideal set up for young children with many learn-play areas to help children develop at their own pace.

Staff at the center are all dedicated and experienced and have a wide background in education. The center has two credentialed pre-school teachers, one teacher with a masters degree in art, and one with a degree in music education. The center is licensed yearly by the Dept. of Human Services and also meets USDA guidelines on meals served.

Staff are: Donna Richard, head teacher; teachers, Linda Stowell, Katina Colombotos, Tracy Poland, and Mariba Stowell-McLean; special resource part-time teacher, Cindy Mills; cook, Esther Crockett; social service aide, Lorraine Hall.

Classroom activities in the past month have focussed on the fall and harvest season and our community. Many creative table and art activities have utilized the natural resources from the season. The whole group had a wonderful tour of Stearns Apple Orchard in Albany being leased by the Wing family of B&E Orchards. Mr. Wing gave the children an informative tour of his beautiful orchard. He described four varieties of apples in the orchard and everyone sampled a cup of freshly pressed cider. Children all had their own bag of just picked apples and Mr. Wing also gave us Cortland and McIntosh apples for cooking. The center thanks the Wings for their generosity. Children made a delicious batch of

Sent in by Viva Whitman:

One can certainly see a lot farther through the woods now. The leaves have been falling fast and leaving many trees bare. I'm sure glad to be in this part of the country though, and not out where they are getting all the snow storms. It seems very early for so many storms, but we have no control over Mother Nature.

It has been another busy week here as we have been trying to get the new addition done. I have helped Russell all I could and together we have got a lot done.

I was doing dishes on Monday, when I thought I heard someone trying to get unstuck, if you will, and sure enough, a lady had turned out of the road to let a truck pass and was stuck in the loose gravel beyond the blacktop on the road. Russell and I went over and after a little shoveling and pushing, we got her into the road again.

Russell peeled and cut up squash to cook and freeze two different nights this week and we have a lot of packages of it to enjoy this winter.

Had to go to Harrison on Monday for another treatment on my sinuses and then to North Bridgton on Wednesday to get allergy shots and more medicine.

We finished the outside of the addition and have painted it now and it looks real nice. We have been at it everyday to get it done, along with other work.

We were busy on Friday, I went to town to do laundry, get medication for Russell, get gas in the car, keep an appointment and get groceries. Took all afternoon to do the errands and Russell worked at home while I was gone.

Had been to town early on Thursday to get new tires on my car before winter sets in. I was afraid the old ones wouldn't get me through the snow too well.

On Saturday, we were so busy it wasn't funny. We froze squash in the morning and in the afternoon, we went up to Hilda and Gerald Taylor's, where our garden has been, and Russell cleaned up all that was left. Found a couple of squashes we had left when we gathered them in and pulled the beets, took care of all the old vines and then dug the parsnips. We came home, prepared the parsnips and put them into the freezer.

Was glad to find Gerald feeling so well and going to try working half days. He feels pretty good about that. Guess he is tired of sitting and not being able to do all he wants to do. Hope he gets along fine and doesn't overdo and then he will be able to keep working.

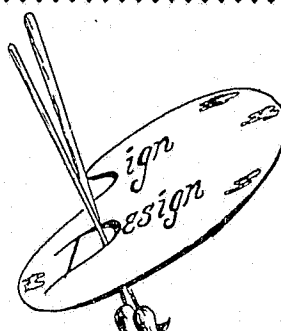

Sunday and my granddaughter is here with us for the week while her folks are on vacation in Vermont. Got a call this evening and she said it was rather stormy up that way and when Michael looked out the window in the late afternoon, they were getting snow flurries.

Myrna and Bernard White have been up today to work on Peggy's camp. It will look like a brand new home when all is done on it. They come up whenever they can and want to put shingles on the camp. That will make it look real nice with the brown trimmings they have put on. There are still windows to be changed and a few other things. It should be a very neat little place when all is done.

It is so good to know that the garden stuff is all taken care of, now I can get busy on making things for Christmas. As I look through catalogs, it makes me know that I better be able to make the most of my presents or no one will get anything from me. I had rather make the gifts anyway and that makes them full of love to the ones getting them. That is why I do so much crocheting. I make afghans and dollies and what ever I can think of and it helps to make Christmas bright and let my family know how much I think of them to put so much time into the gifts.

Halloween coming up and the ghosts and goblins will be out trick or treating. I hope people will be kind and not fill things with pins and needles or razor blades. They get hurt enough these days with all the violence around, so be good to your Halloween visitors instead of putting bad things in the treats.

An Open Letter from REPRESENTATIVE JEFF MILLS
to the Voters of District 49

DEAR FRIENDS:

During my first term in the legislature I was appointed to the Audit and Program Review Committee, which reviews state government to eliminate waste and increase efficiency. Last spring we worked to achieve a fair solution to the funding problems of the Fisheries and Wildlife Department; an important issue for our area.

For the next session, if re-elected, I have requested assignment to the Transportation Committee. I will then be in a position to effectively fight for a fair share of highway funds for our area. The condition of Routes 2 and 26, and the many secondary roads in our area is vital for the economic well-being of this region.

An effective legislator is able to get the job done for the District by knowing the ropes. I was able to keep your taxes down last year by returning over $200,000 to Maine towns. I am asking for your support and your vote to allow me to keep working for you on issues that matter to all of us.

Sincerely,

JEFF MILLS

Gilead

Louise Loring, Corres.

Over 100 years ago James Russell Lowell wrote "It's not what we give, but what we share. For the gift without the giver is bare. Who gives of himself—feeds three, himself—his neighbor and me."

As the October days wane away we have been privileged to experience the joys of an extended blessing of Indian summer. Each day of each morning fog, started out so cheerily, and only in mid-morning to clear away to absolutely beautiful, warm rays of golden sunshine. Everyone believed it would be the "last good day" we would experience for months to come, so everybody lived those golden moments so fully — so precious! What a joy it would be if we could train ourselves to live every day, in that same manner be it stormy or beautiful weather, what a lot of unnecessary heartaches and worries we humans could avoid—if we were but to accept each break of day, as a new beginning for all of us, forgetting the past—and looking forward to bright patches of sunshine and rainbows that are bound to arrive in due time.

Some stepping stones to this new approach to positive attitudes could be—

Complete what we start
Enlarge our interests
Laugh a lot
Express gratitude to friends
Be kind thoughtful and caring
Tell people you love them
Extend a helping hand
Not down reasons You have to Be Happy
Overlook pettiness and jealousy of others
Yield to our Supreme Maker.
These few practices if observed could brighten our on-coming dull days.

Our deepest sympathies are extended to the family of Gordon Mason, a resident of the Bog Road, who passed away one day last week.

Mrs. Mary Cole, accompanied her son and family, the Daniel Coles, to Saco one day last week, returning Mark to the school he is attending there.

Mrs. Mary Tyler took her daughter, Kathy, to the Shriners' Hospital in Springfield, Mass., last Oliver Davis, Corres.

Richard Felt went to Presumptuous Grange with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Canwell, Dot and Richard entertained with their good music.

Mrs. Jean Mason Grover held a party at her home on Curtis Hill Monday afternoon.

What a beautiful Indian Summer we are having. I wish it would last all winter, don't you?

Thursday Lizzie Russ and I took a foliage tour to Norway, then we went up by the ponds on the Greenwood road. It was just a fairytale of color. Then we went to Locke Mills around North Pond. We called on Ralph and Helvi Tucci at their cottage, then we continued through North Woodstock back to Ledgewick.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews and Lillian Harmon were over here from Bridgton Sunday and took dinner with me, Arthur and week. She and her daughter spent last week end with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Laughy of Tilton, N.H., returning Sunday evening.

Evelyn Bean of Bryant Pond took Mary Cole to Portland one day last week.

Many attended the wedding of Fernand Coriveau Jr., held at the Albany Church last Saturday morning.

Mrs. Elsie Bryant of Bryant Pond and Mrs. Deborah Cantello and Jessica of Westbrook, took Sunday dinner with the Gerald Loring.

The Gilead Women's Club gathered one evening last week, and traveled to the Town and Country in Gorham, N.H., for their annual dinner.

Chris and Tim Chapman, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Chapman, attended the Boy Scout Fall Camporee held at Black Mountain in Rumford, recently.

Attention everyone: The Gilead Women's Club is holding their annual Halloween party for the Gilead children on Wednesday, Oct. 31, from 6 to 7 p.m. Anyone wishing to make donations of candy may contact Lin Chapman or Beverly Coriveau. This has become an annual event, and has been enjoyed by all youngsters and oldsters alike. Residents of the area, please attend and join in the festivities.

Remember the old adage — "Spring forward—fall behind"—as we set our clocks BACK this weekend. An extra hour in bed—every morning—and retire to roost with the chickens! Peace!! Sylvia put on the double windows in no time flat before dinner. They are swift workers. Lillian hadn't been here for some time. They have a new board which is a big help in getting her wheel chair in and out of the car. She loves to ride, too, and has enjoyed more trips since getting this board.

Friday I had an errand at Bethel so I took a ride to my old home area under Grover and Farwell Mts. and down to Crocker Pond camping area. I was very surprised to find a smooth dirt road right to the area. I found a big log job was being done right back of where our barn set and there were big logs, too, that had to be grown since we left there. The fields are about all grown in with quite a lot of pines.

I came home on the West Bethel road. I was looking for the school house. I didn't see it. Was it torn down or burned? Does anyone know? We walked a mile to that building for our education. I also missed the "Mud City" road which was the left of the school house. Ledges were between the roads where the school set. (Bennett School)

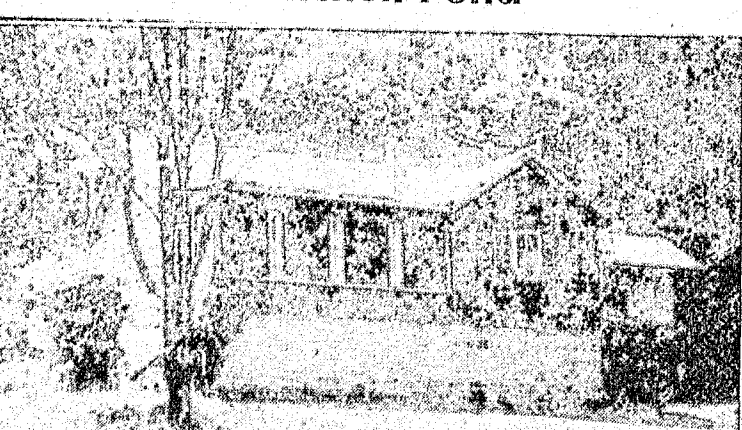

Some of our good Grangers have been touring the country. I am sure their friends would like to hear that Wyman and Ruth Lord of Harrison enjoyed a trip to Utah and western Canada. They flew to Salt Lake City, Utah and spent some time with Wyman's brother, Lewis and wife. While there they enjoyed a trip through the Flaming Gorge National Park which was very scenic. They then rented a car and drove to Yellowstone National Park. They then went to Grand Teton National Park. Another plane trip took them to Calgary, Alberta, where they obtained another rental car and drove to Banff National Park, visiting Lake Louise and Moraine Lake as well as Jasper National and Columbia Icefields.

Then they flew to British Columbia where they spent a few days visiting friends in the beautiful Okanagan Valley where the peaches were in their prime. They flew to Vancouver and took an all day bus tour to Victoria; crossing the gulf on the ferry where they enjoyed the beautiful Butchart Gardens as well as other points of interest in Victoria. From Vancouver they flew back to Maine. They saw a great many interesting and beautiful scenes during the two week trip.

The Selectmen met Tuesday morning, Oct. 16, at the Town Clerk's Office. A lease was signed with NOVA for the Raymond Foster School until June 30, 1985. This is a transferral of the S.A.D. 44-NOVA lease. It is expected that a new lease will be negotiated at the termination of this one. The chimney at the Foster School has been rebuilt to slightly above the roof and will be completed when the pitch roof is done. Some materials for the roof have been delivered and work has been started. There will be some delay in delivery of the truss rafters and it is expected that the contractor, James Sysko, will build them himself. Road work to be done this fall was discussed. This included work on shoulders of the former State Aid Road at Sunday River and hauling some gravel on the Roderick Road. A warrant was made to pay current bills including the S.A.D. 44 payment and the county tax. Warrants were prepared for the Nov. 6 election. Anyone who is eligible to vote in Newry and is not registered may do so with June Swan, registrar of voters, or may register at the polls on election day, Nov. 6. Voters who will be away on election day may contact June Swan, Town Clerk, for absentee ballots.

Rotary Club News

The Bethel Rotary Club held its weekly luncheon meeting at the Sudbury Inn on Oct. 23. At this time it is well to note that the club will hold the luncheon meetings through the month of November at the Only Place, West Bethel.

The program chairman for the meeting was Bryce Yates. His speaker was Les Otten who talked about the development of the Sunday River Skiway during this year and the future planning. The operation now employs 75 persons which helps the local and state economy.

Guest joining with the club Tuesday was Ivan Jensen, Tacoma, Wash., guest of Bryce Yates.

John Head gave an interesting presentation of Rotary information about the Rotary Foundation, Scholarship and Group Study Exchange Programs, and the health goals were talked about. Good job, John. Romeo is the program chairman for next week. The program is not known at this time.

A brief discussion about club programs and the need for complete member involvement was held. Team work, cooperation, and commitment is the backbone of all service clubs and Bethel Rotary is quite pleased with its members support of club programs. There is always room to improve, however.

This week the Bethel Rotary was informed by the General Secretary of Rotary International that they are now a 2900+ Foundation Club and number one in District #779 which consists of 82 clubs. Just had to pass on the good news.

Hunting season is at hand again. Enjoy the hunt—hunt safely.

TELSTAR'S N.H.S. PLANS 2nd ANNUAL SENIOR CITIZEN THANKSGIVING DINNER

The National Honor Society at Telstar Regional High School will sponsor a Thanksgiving dinner for senior citizens residing in S.A.D. 44 on Sunday, Nov. 18.

The holiday dinner will be held in the high school cafeteria. Senior citizens will receive a mailed invitation and are asked to respond to the Telstar N.H.S. for their reservation. Entertainment will also accompany all the traditional fixings of a Thanksgiving dinner.

As they did last year, the National Honor Society members will be contacting various organizations, businesses and individuals for donations of food, cash, or assistance in hosting a Thanksgiving dinner for over 125 senior citizens. The N.H.S. would appreciate any type or amount of donation.

Proceeds last year served 125 senior citizens and provided two $100 scholarships for the class of '84. Further developments of this dinner will be forthcoming in November. Please contact Mr. Hart or Jodey Kimball at Telstar (824-2138) regarding this community holiday function.

HEALTH CENTER SPONSORING PROGRAM FOR ADOLESCENTS

The Bethel Area Health Center, with the Cooperative Extension Service, will sponsor a twelve-week program for adolescents ages 8-14 years old and their parents called "To a Healthier Happier You." The purpose of the program is to help pre-teenage youngsters with a weight problem learn better eating habits, try out low-calorie but tasty recipes, learn fun exercises for better fitness and ways to feel good about themselves, no matter what their weight.

Group leaders will include personnel from the health center, the Extension Service, Tri-County Mental Health, and people from the community. Parents are encouraged to attend so the child can get the most out of the program. However, if a parent is unable to at-

MALLET APPEARING AT BINGHAM AUDITORIUM FRIDAY, OCT. 26

"Inch by inch, row by row
Gonna make this garden grow,
All it takes is a rake and a hoe
and a piece of fertile ground."

A stunning lyricist, David Mallett in the last five years, has gained a growing northeast audience and produced four splendid albums. His nationally sung classic "Garden Song" has been recorded by John Denver, Pete Seeger and Arlo Guthrie, among others, and Denver is recording two more Mallett compositions as well.

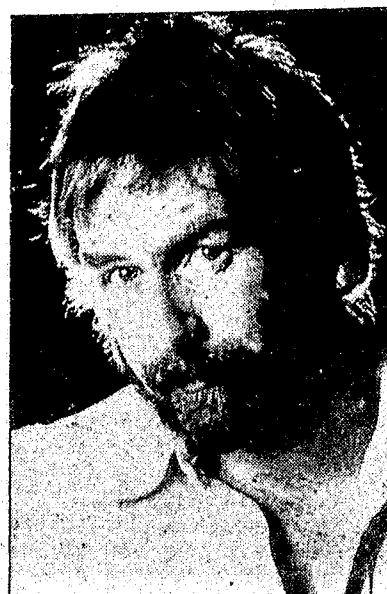

The Sudbury Inn in Bethel will be presenting Mallett in concert at the Gould Academy Auditorium this Friday, Oct. 26, at 8 p.m. Tickets will be available at the Sudbury Inn and at the door.

Mallett grew up in rural Maine on land his family had farmed for nearly two centuries. His stories and music are steeped in tradition. After years of the club and college circuit, Noel Paul Stookey, the Paul of Peter, Paul, and Mary, heard the young performer. Having moved to Maine himself where he founded Newworld Records, Stookey signed Mallett and still produces his albums.

Since his first LP three years ago, Mallett's music continues to evolve. There is a true contemporary flavor to his songs rarely found in commercial music and the musicianship is always gratifying. It is when he is most auto-tend, participation by the youngsters is still encouraged.

The program is scheduled to start Wednesday, Nov. 7, at the Bethel Fire Station, from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Although there is no charge for the course, donations will be accepted to cover the cost of materials and food. Please call the health center at 824-2193 to register. Prior to the first session participants are requested to go to the health center for a height and weight check.
